TRINITY
EPISCOPAL CATHEDRAL
A house of prayer for all people

All Saints' Day
November 1, 2026, 10:30 a.m.

Welcome: Whether you are a first-time visitor or a long-time member, we are honored to worship with you today. If you are searching for a church home, we would love to tell you more about this congregation and to learn more about you. Fill out a visitor card found in the back of the pew in front of you, drop it in the offering plate, and we'll be in conversation with you this week. If you would like to know more about the cathedral, a tour of the building is available immediately following the service. A tour guide will meet you in the baptistery in the back of the church. Above all, please know that this is your Cathedral, and all are welcome.

Children in Worship: We love the presence of children in our worship services here at Trinity. Engaging materials for children can be found near the bell tower doors in the back of the Cathedral. The bell tower has a speaker that allows you to hear the service if you need to step out with your child. Nursery care is also available for infants and toddlers up to 4 years old. If you need directions, our ushers and greeters would be happy to show you the way.

Hymns are found in the red hymnal.

HOLY BAPTISM

Margaret Clark Curtner; Audrey Deanes Rowedder; Edmund Wayne Powhattan Willis

The Prelude Fantasia and Fugue in G, Op. 188 C. Hubert H. Parry

Hymn 287 For all the saints, who from their labors rest Sine Nomine

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.
People And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant There is one Body and one Spirit;
People There is one hope in God's call to us;

Celebrant One Lord, one Faith, one Baptism;
People One God and Father of all.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit together your elect in one communion and fellowship in the mystical body of your Son Christ our Lord: Give us grace so to follow your blessed saints in all virtuous and godly living, that we may come to those ineffable joys that you have prepared for those who truly love you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

All sit.

The First Reading — Revelation 7:9-17

After this I, John, looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

"Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!" And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, singing,

> "Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom > and thanksgiving and honor > and power and might > be to our God forever and ever! Amen."

Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

> "For this reason they are before the throne of God,
> and worship him day and night within his temple,
> and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.
> They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
> the sun will not strike them,
> nor any scorching heat;
> for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd, > and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
> and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Psalm 34:1-10, 22 Benedicam Dominum Sung by the choir Anglican Chant by Thomas Norris

*I will bless the Lord at all times; *
his praise shall ever be in my mouth.

*I will glory in the Lord; *
let the humble hear and rejoice.

*Proclaim with me the greatness of the Lord; *
let us exalt his Name together.

*I sought the Lord, and he answered me *
and delivered me out of all my terror.

*Look upon him and be radiant, *
and let not your faces be ashamed.

*I called in my affliction and the Lord heard me *
and saved me from all my troubles.

*The angel of the Lord encompasses those who fear him, *
and he will deliver them.

*Taste and see that the Lord is good; *
happy are they who trust in him!

*Fear the Lord, you that are his saints, *
for those who fear him lack nothing.

*The young lions lack and suffer hunger, *
but those who seek the Lord lack nothing that is good.

*The Lord ransoms the life of his servants, *
and none will be punished who trust in him.

The Second Reading 1 John 3:1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Lector The Word of the Lord.
People Thanks be to God.

Hymn 275 Hark! The sound of holy voices Moultrie

The Gospel Matthew 5:1-12

Deacon The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

"Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth.

"Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled.

"Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy.

"Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God.

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God.

"Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

"Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets who were before you."

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The Sermon

The Presentation and Examination of the Candidates

The congregation remains seated.

Celebrant The Candidates for Holy Baptism will now be presented.

Parents and Godparents I present Margaret Clark Curtner to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.
I present Audrey Deanes Rowedder to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.
I present Edmund Wayne Powhattan Willis to receive the Sacrament of Baptism.

Celebrant Will you be responsible for seeing that the child you present is brought up in the Christian faith and life?

Parents and Godparents I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you by your prayers and witness help this child to grow into the full stature of Christ?

Parents and Godparents I will, with God's help.

The Celebrant asks the following questions of the parents and godparents.

Question Do you renounce Satan and all the spiritual forces of wickedness that rebel against God?

Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you renounce the evil powers of this world which corrupt and destroy the creatures of God?

Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you renounce all sinful desires that draw you from the love of God?

Answer I renounce them.

Question Do you turn to Jesus Christ and accept him as your Savior?

Answer I do.

Question Do you put your whole trust in his grace and love?

Answer I do.

Question Do you promise to follow and obey him as your Lord?

Answer I do.

The congregation stands. The Celebrant addresses the congregation, saying

Will you who witness these vows do all in your power to support these persons in their life in Christ?

People We will.

Celebrant Let us join with those who are committing themselves to Christ and renew our own baptismal covenant.

The Baptismal Covenant

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Father?

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

Celebrant Do you believe in Jesus Christ, the Son of God?

People I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

Celebrant Do you believe in God the Holy Spirit?

People I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Celebrant Will you continue in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and in the prayers?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you persevere in resisting evil, and, whenever you fall into sin, repent and return to the Lord?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you proclaim by word and example the Good News of God in Christ?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you seek and serve Christ in all persons, loving your neighbor as yourself?

People I will, with God's help.

Celebrant Will you strive for justice and peace among all people, and respect the dignity of every human being?

People I will, with God's help.

The Prayers for the Candidates

The Celebrant then says to the congregation

Let us now pray for these persons who are to receive the Sacrament of new birth.

The Intercessor leads the following petitions

Intercessor Deliver them, O Lord, from the way of sin and death.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Open their hearts to your grace and truth.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Fill them with your holy and life-giving Spirit.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Keep them in the faith and communion of your holy Church.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Teach them to love others in the power of the Spirit.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Send them into the world in witness to your love.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

Intercessor Bring them to the fullness of your peace and glory.
People Lord, hear our prayer.

The Celebrant says

Grant, O Lord, that all who are baptized into the death of Jesus Christ your Son may live in the power of his resurrection and look for him to come again in glory; who lives and reigns now and forever. Amen.

Hymn 293 I sing a song of the saints of God Grand Isle

The procession moves to the Baptistry during the hymn. All children are invited to come to the back of the Cathedral to witness the Baptism.

Thanksgiving over the Water

All children are invited to come to sit near Baptismal font. The Celebrant blesses the water, first saying

The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant We thank you, Almighty God, for the gift of water. Over it the Holy Spirit moved in the beginning of creation. Through it you led the children of Israel out of their bondage in Egypt into the land of promise. In it your Son Jesus received the baptism of John and was anointed by the Holy Spirit as the Messiah, the Christ, to lead us, through his death and resurrection, from the bondage of sin into everlasting life.

We thank you, Father, for the water of Baptism. In it we are buried with Christ in his death. By it we share in his resurrection. Through it we are reborn by the Holy Spirit. Therefore in joyful obedience to your Son, we bring into his fellowship those who come to him in faith, baptizing them in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

At the following words, the Celebrant touches the water

Now sanctify this water, we pray you, by the power of your Holy Spirit, that those who here are cleansed from sin and born again may continue for ever in the risen life of Jesus Christ our Savior.

To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

The Baptism

Each candidate is presented by name to the Celebrant who then pours water upon the candidate, saying

N., I baptize you in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Then the Celebrant places a hand on the person's head, marking on the forehead the sign of the cross and saying to each one

N., you are sealed by the Holy Spirit in Baptism and marked as Christ's own for ever. Amen.

Each candidate is given a lighted candle with the following words

N., receive the light of Christ, and may you shine as a light in the world to the glory of God. Amen.

When this action has been completed for all candidates, the Celebrant, at a place in full sight of the congregation, prays over them, saying

Let us pray.

Heavenly Father, we thank you that by water and the Holy Spirit you have bestowed upon these your servants the forgiveness of sin, and have raised them to the new life of grace. Sustain them, O Lord, in your Holy Spirit. Give them an inquiring and discerning heart, the courage to will and to persevere, a spirit to know and to love you, and the gift of joy and wonder in all your works. Amen.

When all have been baptized, the Celebrant says

Let us welcome the newly baptized.

Celebrant and People

We receive you into the household of God. Confess the faith of Christ crucified, proclaim his resurrection, and share with us in his eternal priesthood.

The Peace

All stand.

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Then all may greet one another in the name of the Lord.

THE HOLY COMMUNION

During the Offertory Anthem, representatives of the congregation bring the people's offerings of bread, wine, money, and other gifts to the Celebrant. To make an offering electronically, scan the QR code at the back of the bulletin.

Anthem And I saw another angel Charles Villiers Stanford

And I saw another angel, ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God;
and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, saying,
Hurt not the earth neither the sea, nor the trees,
till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.
And lo, a great multitude, which no man could number,
of all nations and kindreds and people, and tongues,
stood before the throne and before the Lamb,
clothed with white robes, and palms were in their hands;
And cried with a loud voice, saying,
Salvation to our God, which sitteth upon the throne,
and unto the Lamb. Amen.
Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might be unto our God for ever and ever.
Amen.

Text: Revelation 7:2-3, 9-10, & 12

The Blessing of Pledges

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.
People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth...

...Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Sanctus and Benedictus sung by the choir

Communion Service in B-flat Charles Villiers Stanford

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts: Heaven and earth are full of thy glory.
Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. Amen.
Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

All stand or kneel.

Holy and gracious Father: In your infinite love you made us for yourself; and, when we had fallen into sin and become subject to evil and death, you, in your mercy, sent Jesus Christ, your only and eternal Son, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

He stretched out his arms upon the cross, and offered himself, in obedience to your will, a perfect sacrifice for the whole world.

On the night he was handed over to suffering and death, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We celebrate the memorial of our redemption, O Father, in this sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving. Recalling his death, resurrection, and ascension, we offer you these gifts.

Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be for your people the Body and Blood of your Son, the holy food and drink of new and unending life in him. Sanctify us also that we may faithfully receive this holy Sacrament, and serve you in unity, constancy, and peace; and at the last day bring us with all your saints into the joy of your eternal kingdom.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. AMEN.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People and Celebrant

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Agnus Dei sung by the choir Communion Service in B-flat Charles Villiers Stanford

O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, have mercy upon us.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world, grant us thy peace.

The Administration of Holy Communion

To receive the Bread and Wine of Holy Communion, please come forward and kneel or stand at the Altar rail. Gluten-free Bread is available upon request. If you prefer not to drink the Wine, please know that receiving only Bread is a "full Communion." If you prefer to receive a blessing instead of the Bread and Wine, come forward to the rail and cross your arms over your chest. If, for whatever reason, you prefer to receive the Bread and Wine in your pew, let your usher know.

Music at Communion

Communion Motet My soul, there is a country C. Hubert H. Parry

My soul, there is a country
Far beyond the stars,
Where stands a wingèd sentry
All skilful in the wars:

There, above noise and danger,
Sweet Peace sits crown'd with smiles,
And One born in a manger
Commands the beauteous files.

He is thy gracious Friend,
And—O my soul, awake!—
Did in pure love descend
To die here for thy sake.

If thou canst get but thither,
There grows the flower of Peace,
The Rose that cannot wither,
Thy fortress, and thy ease.

Leave then thy foolish ranges;
For none can thee secure
But One who never changes—
Thy God, thy life, thy cure.

Text by Henry Vaughan

Hymn 526 Let saints on earth in concert sing Dundee

The Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

If people are being sent to take the Bread and Wine to those who are absent, the Deacon says

Deacon In the name of this congregation, we send you forth bearing these holy gifts, that those to whom you go may share with us in the communion of Christ's body and blood.

People We who are many are one, because we all share one bread and one cup. Amen.

The Blessing

Celebrant May God give you grace to follow his saints in faith and hope and love; and the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, be among you, and remain with you always. Amen.

The Dismissal

Deacon Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
People Thanks be to God.

Notes on the Notes: This morning's music highlights the compositions of C. Hubert H. Parry and Charles Villiers Stanford, contemporaries who were also friends, albeit with a sometimes strained relationship.

Parry's Fantasia and Fugue in G, Op. 188 is a relatively obscure gem of the organ repertoire, the fugue in particular being one of the most rhythmically creative fugues for organ. Today's communion motet is the first of Parry's Six Songs of Farewell, one of the masterpieces of twentieth-century choral music. Parry wrote these pieces during World War I; sadly, he died one month before the armistice was signed.

Today's offertory anthem by Stanford takes its text from today's first reading (which, unusually, does not come from the Old Testament). The choir will also sing the Sanctus, Benedictus, and Agnus from Stanford's Communion Service in B-flat.

Dupré's Placare Christe servulis is an exciting toccata based on the All Saints' plainchant of the same name. It is the finale of a set of 16 pieces based on Gregorian chants that compose Le Tombeau de Titelouze.

Parish Retreat at Camp Mitchell

Friday, January 15 – Sunday, January 17, 2027

This Year's Theme: Practicing Prayer in Our Daily Life

Join us for a weekend of prayer, fellowship, and renewal at Camp Mitchell, the Diocese of Arkansas' beautiful camp and conference center atop Petit Jean Mountain! Over Martin Luther King, Jr. weekend, Trinity parishioners of all ages are invited to step away from the busyness of daily life and enjoy time together in one of Arkansas' most beautiful settings. We hope you'll join us for this special weekend together!

Led by Dean Andrea and Emma Mitchell, the retreat will offer spiritual formation for adults and children, shared worship, and plenty of opportunities for rest, recreation, and fellowship. The weekend begins with dinner and a bonfire on Friday evening and concludes with Holy Eucharist on Sunday morning.

Registration is $150 per adult, $125 per adult without overnight lodging, and $100 per child (ages toddler–18). All registrations include five meals. Registration and payment are due Wednesday, December 30, 2026. For the full schedule, lodging information, and registration, scan the QR code.

The Cathedral Forum: The Bible in English, 500 Years Later

Sundays, 9:15 a.m., Morrison Hall

Five hundred years ago this year, William Tyndale published his printed English New Testament, helping transform the way English-speaking Christians encountered Scripture. Over four weeks, we'll trace the Bible from its earliest traditions and manuscripts through the Reformation and into the world of modern English translations, considering along the way what this history means for the Bible we hear in worship and read at home today. To learn more, contact the Rev. Thomas Alexander (thomas@trinitylittlerock.org).

Trinity Book Club: When Helping Hurts by Steve Corbett and Brian Fikkert

Wednesdays, 6:30 p.m. – Parish House Room 101

The Trinity Book Club is currently reading When Helping Hurts: How to Alleviate Poverty without Hurting the Poor…and Yourself by Steve Corbett and Brian Fikkert (ISBN: 0802409989), a widely read exploration of Christian ministry among people experiencing poverty. The book challenges some of our assumptions about what it means to help, asking how churches and individuals can serve others in ways that honor human dignity, strengthen relationships, and avoid creating unintended harm or dependency. Along the way, we'll consider larger questions about poverty, charity, mission, and what faithful Christian service looks like in practice. The discussion is led by the Rev. Thomas Alexander.

To sign up or receive Book Club emails, contact Thomas at (thomas@trinitylittlerock.org).

All Souls' Day Requiem by John Rutter (with chamber orchestra)

Today at 4 pm

In commemoration of All Souls' Day, the Trinity Choir and members of the Arkansas Symphony will perform John Rutter's Requiem with chamber orchestra. Rutter's Requiem is an Anglican perspective on the typical Requiem. Rutter sets most of the Latin Requiem text, but also inserts English settings of Psalm 130 (Out of the deep), Psalm 23 (The Lord is my shepherd), and other biblical verses. A festive reception will follow.

Sunday Evening Youth Groups

EKC (4th-5th) & EYC (6th-12th)
Sundays, 5:00 p.m. – 6:30 p.m. – Youth Room, Chancellors Hall

Every Sunday evening, our youth gather for food and fellowship. Our two communities share dinner together for the first 30 minutes, and then gather separately for 1 hour of programming, including faith formation, games, and service projects. This is a weekly opportunity to grow as disciples in a joyful and welcoming community. To learn more, contact Emma Mitchell at emma@trinitylittlerock.org.

A Celebration for Lillian and Thomas

Sunday, November 8 after the 10:30 am service

The Trinity clergy and staff invite the congregation to join us after the 10:30 am service on Sunday, November 8 for a special reception, celebrating with Lillian and Thomas the arrival of their child in the coming weeks.

Gifts will not be accepted, but in honor of the celebration, Thomas and Lillian have asked that we collect diapers for the Food Pantry at Saint Mark's during the reception.
