

The Right Reverend Henry Niles Pierce

First Diocesan Bishop of the Arkansas Episcopal Diocese
and Founder of Trinity
Episcopal Cathedral,
1884

Photo Courtesy of Niguel Valley Photography

Planned giving is a thoughtful way to play an important part in the long term success and growth of Trinity Episcopal and to help assure that its missions will continue to grow for generations to come.

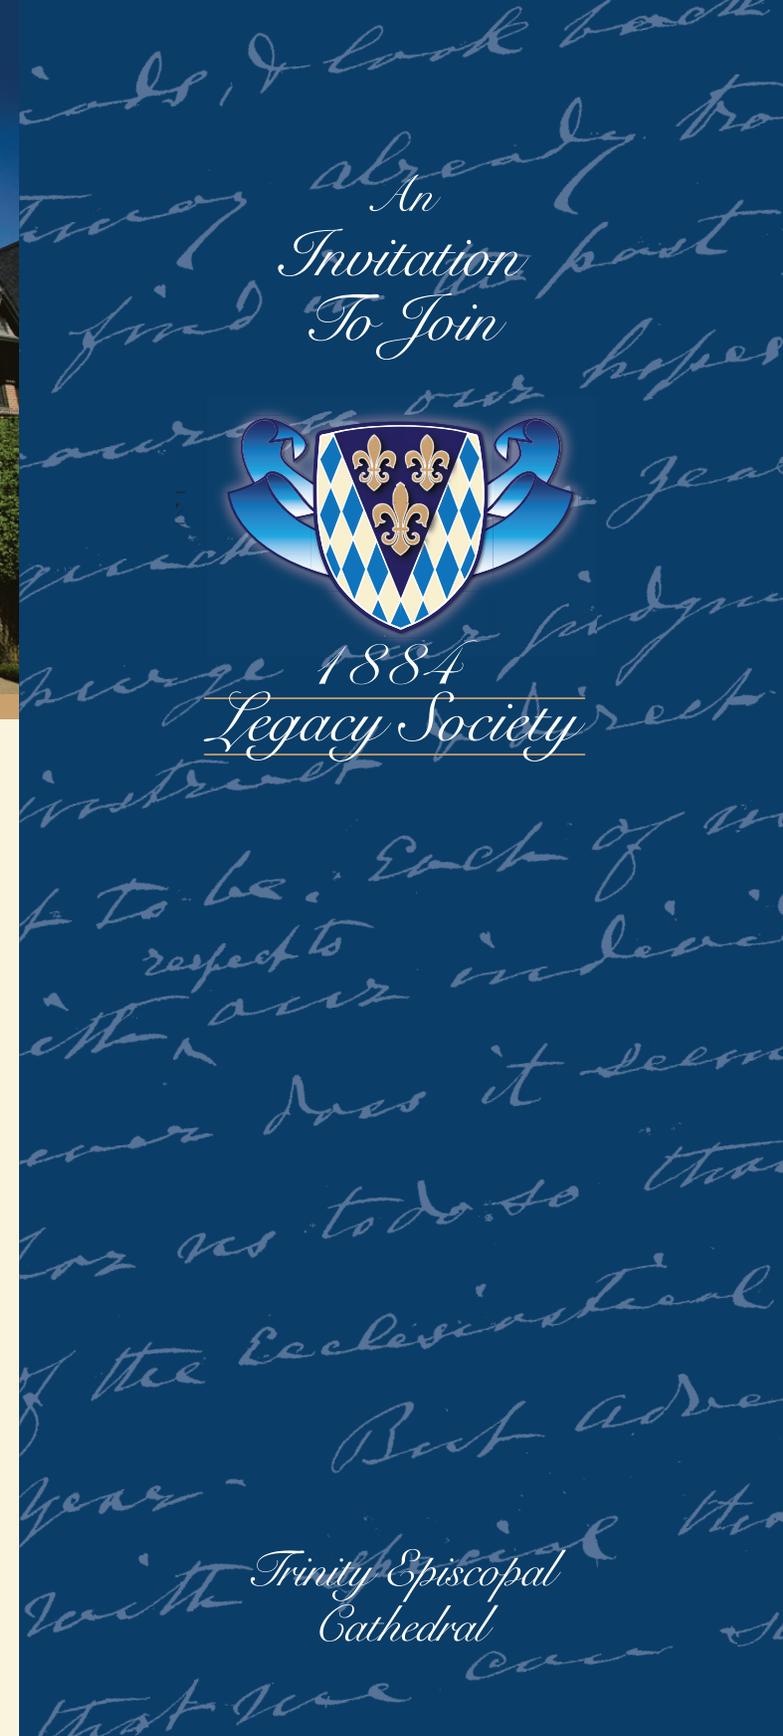

*Trinity Episcopal
Cathedral*

*1884
Legacy Society*

310 West 17th Avenue, Little Rock, Arkansas 72206

For more information, contact:
The Office of the Dean or Financial Administrator
Trinity Episcopal Cathedral
501.372.0294
trinitylittlerock.org

*An Invitation
To Join*

*1884
Legacy Society*

*Trinity Episcopal
Cathedral*

Other Seed fell into good soil and brought forth grain, growing up and increasing and yielding thirty and sixty and a hundredfold — Mark 4:8

Our values influence every aspect of our lives. They motivate us, lending us strength to give freely of ourselves in the hope that our contributions will help make a difference.

Our support of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral is offered in the most generous spirit of our faith, and serves as a symbol of our lasting commitment to our church.

We give to ensure it's ministries will be sustained as we ourselves have been sustained.

In the spirit of Mark 4:8, Trinity Episcopal Cathedral has established The 1884 Legacy Society to recognize and thank those who have acknowledged a commitment to the church's future either with an endowment gift during their lifetime or through their estate planning.

While a donor may wish to remain anonymous, The 1884 Legacy Society provides an opportunity to celebrate those who have followed the example of Bishop Pierce and his exemplary devotion to the future of the church. These gifts will allow present generations to ensure the future of our ministries in a profound and meaningful way.

You may become a member of The 1884 Legacy Society by including Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in your plans. A gift during your lifetime of appreciated assets such as securities, or property, could provide certain current tax benefits. Other lifetime gifts could provide compelling income for life to the donor as well as tax benefits. Gifts could also include bequests made through a will or a trust, or by naming the church as beneficiary of an insurance policy or a retirement account.

Your gift, regardless of size or type, would build a sustaining legacy for Trinity Episcopal Cathedral.

Brochure background is an excerpt from Bishop Pierce's handwritten sermon, circa 1887

“For it is no selfish design of our own that we are working out. Let us therefore be prayerful, humble, diligent, active and preserving. Then, when God has crowned our efforts with abundant success, we shall devoutly say: Hitherto hath the Lord helped us, for we shall then feel as every true and generous heart here now feels, that it is God's Work”

*Bishop Henry Niles Pierce
Sermon, New Years 1887*