Gay & Faithful (Morrison Hall)

February 15 - April 5

This class is for anyone who wants to explore homo- and bisexuality as they relate to and complement our Christian faith. Learn along with the Rev. Amber Carswell as we approach this timely subject through the lenses of scripture, tradition, and reason.

English Spirituality (Conference Room)

February 15 - April 19

We will survey the development, from the Middle Ages to the present, of approaches to our relationship with God that we might see as distinctively English. Frequently, we will refer to writings of and about representative figures in each historical era. Along the way, we will note how we Episcopalians have derived much from the spiritual outlook and practices of English Christians through the centuries.

Introduction to Theological Debate (Lower Mitchell House)

March 8 - April 5

March 8: Christian Faith as an intellectual tradition

March 15: 9 criteria for judging

March 22: 4 kinds of claim and 5 kinds of evidence

March 29: 6 tools for thinking (warrants)

April 5: 3 structures of argument

Led by Dr. Keller.

Please remember Trinity Cathedral in your will.

A Study of the First Epistle of St. John (Conference Room)

April 19 - May 24

Are you interested in knowing more about what is meant by being “born again,” the origin of “God is love,” or the identity of the “antichrist”? These are some of the topics we’ll be discussing during a six-week study of the First Epistle of St. John. Facilitated by George Harper.

Are you interested in Education for Ministry (EfM)?

Are you interested in learning more about EfM? The Trinity Cathedral group will be taking new members starting next August. If you’d like to learn more, please contact Mercedes Clements for more information or if you have any questions - mercedes.clements@gmail.com. Meetings will be on Wednesday evenings from 6:00-8:30 p.m. at Trinity.

Education for Ministry (EfM) is a unique four-year distance learning certificate program in theological education based upon small-group study and practice. Since its founding in 1975, this international program has assisted more than 80,000 participants in discovering and nurturing their call to Christian service. EfM helps the faithful encounter the breadth and depth of the Christian tradition and bring it into conversation with their experiences of the world as they study, worship, and engage in theological reflection together. For more information, please visit the EfM website.

This is a four year program administered by the School of Theology at Sewanee. In each year you take a deep dive into a particular area - Old Testament, New Testament, Christian History, and Personal Theology. We meet weekly on Wednesday evenings from August to May, and there is a significant bit of reading each week. There is also an annual cost of $350 that covers your reading materials.

Our meeting time is spent with some fellowship time, a brief discussion of the readings, and then a facilitated discussion called a theological reflection. Our focus as a group is going to be on theological reflection. The reading is important to build your knowledge of Christian tradition to feed these discussions, but it is not as overwhelming as a lot of people think. If you’re too busy to read on some weeks, you’ll still want to attend for the discussions.

Retreat Singers Concert

On Palm Sunday, April 9, at 4 p.m., the Retreat Singers will offer their historic musical presentation of the life of Jesus Christ at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral. The group began among Cathedral youth in the mid-1960s as they sang while on retreat at the Buffalo River under the leadership of the Rev. Edgar Shippey. Incorporating ancient melodies, they devised a series of songs and readings to present biblical stories freshly and engagingly.

Between 1966 and 1971, they traveled widely, making musical presentations and doing service projects. At their height, they had 50 members and two buses in which they traveled, one named "Holy Roller" and another "Exodus." In addition to ministry in this country, they traveled to Canada, British Honduras, Great Britain, and Scandinavia. High points included singing at the Lambeth Conference at the invitation of the Archbishop of Canterbury and before the King of Sweden in 1968. In that same year, they sang in a 30-minute BBC television special. At least two of the Singers subsequently became Episcopal priests.

In the 1980s, group members began a series of reunions, which continues to this day. Their Palm Sunday offering will be the first public presentation of their "Folk Song Life of Christ" in many years and will greatly enhance our experience of Holy Week.

Music Notes from Victoria

THANK YOU

The outpouring of generosity and support from our Cathedral family and friends for music has been overwhelming. Our Organ Improvement Fund has exceeded its original goal and has allowed us to address a challenge presented by the lightning strikes that was previously unaddressed. Thank you from the bottom of my heart and the hearts of all involved with music here at the Cathedral.

EVENSONG

So many have also contributed in so many ways to our Evensong offerings. Our wonderful priests and vergers have been on hand to set a solemn atmosphere, leading us in our liturgy as no one else can. Lenora Steinkamp has been the mainstay of the fabulous teas which have followed the worship service. She has been ably assisted by Tanya Rollins and other volunteers. Our readers and greeters have been wonderful. Thanks to all of you who have made this experience such a spiritual and meaningful one.

If you haven't had the chance to attend an Evensong service, I would encourage you to give it a try. The beauty, wonder, and holiness of the order of worship bring a sense of awe that I can find nowhere else. And, as musicians, we are so grateful to get to sing the amazing music written specifically for this service. In March, we've been doing a solemn setting written by Orlando Gibbons. In Eastertide, we will venture into the happy, festive setting of Harold Friedell. On April 2, we welcome the choir of St. Luke's Episcopal, under the direction of Rees Roberts, to sing Choral Evensong. They will sing works of Smith, Willan, Victoria, and Farrant.

CONCERT SERIES

Our last chamber concert was beautifully presented and well attended in March. The performers who included our own Jason Pennington-Saugey, played with great skill and sensitivity. Many of you commented that you can already hear a change in the organ, and so can we, your organists. It's such a pleasure to be a part of the growth and nurturing of this magnificent instrument.

The next concert we will present will feature Kiril Laskarov, concert master of the Arkansas Symphony, in a performance of Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto with piano accompaniment. This will be a free concert and open to the public. Many of the vestry members heard a preview of this concert last January and I believe they will agree with me that you will want to be in attendance. It is beautiful music, played as only a true virtuoso can play it. Mark your calendars for Wednesday, April 19 at 7:30 p.m. after the Wednesday classes and choirs.

The final concert in our spring series will occur on Tuesday, May 2 at 7:00 p.m. and I can hardly wait. It is entitled “Piano and the Three Sopranos” and that’s exactly what it will be. Tatiana Roitman Mann, a world-class pianist, will be playing our fabulous Steinway piano and accompanying three of our favorite singers; Anna Squire, Rosella Ewing, and Stephanie Smittle. Tickets will be $20 (always free for students) and are available at www.trinitylittlerock.org/pianoandsopranos, on Eventbrite, and at the door.

CHILDREN’S CHOIRS

It is such a joy to get to work with our children. Charliss Russ has served as our chaplain this year and we are so fortunate to have this dedicated and resourceful woman to assist us. Our children are singing, having fun, and working hard. They will be participating in the worship service on Palm Sunday (Cherubs at 9:00 a.m. only, Seraphims at both services). The Seraphim Singers might sing on Easter Day too (more to come on that). Also, please save-the-date on May 14 for Choir Recognition. They will sing in worship that Sunday too. The last Children’s Choir rehearsal for this school year will be on May 17. (Sara Catherine Smith is still out front in the Hymn Memorizing Contest!)

ON A CLOSING NOTE

I am looking forward to Holy Week and Eastertide this year as we worship together in the beauty of holiness. And I’m so thankful for all of you.

Spotlight on Service

Spotlight on Service is a way for us to acknowledge individuals that work diligently behind the scenes to make a difference in the lives of others, both within Trinity Cathedral and in our community.

This month, we are recognizing Lou Ellen Treadway. Here is what Lou Ellen has to say about her time at Trinity:

Dear Friends of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral,

Until I married Ted Treadway on August 18, 1962, at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, I attended church at First Methodist Church, in Little Rock. Ted was an active member of Trinity and an acolyte. He wanted us to be married at Trinity. Ted followed Leo, Theo and Charles and their families, and he represented the fourth generation of Treadways at Trinity since 1884. After we married, I was baptized and confirmed, and Trinity Cathedral has been my church home for almost fifty-five years. During the early years of my church service, Ted and I shared our love of Trinity with our children, Ellen, Winston and Amy, the fifth generation of Treadways, and we supported the church programs for children. During my middle years of church service, I worked in organizational and administrative areas of Trinity. In the later years of service, I have helped with funerals as a member of the All Saints Guild. I also work with Michael McNeely to provide open house hospitality and receptions.

When Ted and I returned to Little Rock from the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, in 1963, Dean Charles Higgins asked us to teach second grade Sunday School. I told Dean Higgins we did not know anything about second grade children. Dean Higgins replied, "You will learn!" Yes, we did learn about children over the next thirty years of teaching grades 2, 4, 6 and 8. For many years, Ted and I taught the sixth grade Catechism and Confirmation class. Ted and I always worked as a team, and we have appreciated the special opportunity of knowing the many children in our classes. Ellen, Winston and Amy attended Sunday School regularly, and they each earned an award for eighteen years of perfect Sunday School attendance.

Our children attended The Cathedral School. I served as their room mother, a substitute teacher and a member of The Cathedral School Board. With Mary Hayes, I helped sew costumes for The Cathedral School Christmas pageants. Ellen, Winston and Amy sang in the Matin Choir, and they were acolytes. They attended Charles Rigsby's choir camp at Camp Mitchell. I supported these programs. I especially remember cooking for choir camp at Camp Mitchell one hot summer with Carol Bridges. I helped plan Easter egg hunts, Parish picnics at the Dortch Plantation in Scott, and picnics and scavenger hunts at our farm.

One year I organized transportation, leaders, programs and dinners for EYC. Jim Moseley loves the following story. In the yellow school bus, I drove the EYC participants from the Heights Safeway and Christ the King Church. While driving the bus home one Sunday morning, it suddenly stopped on Cantrell Road near Rebsamen Park Road. Amy was riding with me. I asked her to open the back door and wave the cars around the bus. She said she was so embarrassed, and she fell to the floor. I stepped over Amy, opened the back door, and I saw Dick Flowers in his car following our bus. I asked for his help! Dick picked up Ted, and the two men returned and pushed the school bus down a hill to a stop at a 7-11 store.

During the middle years, I served on the Vestry with Deans Charles Higgins, Joel Pugh and Henry Hudson. For six years, I was a member of the Executive Committee and the Vestry Secretary. For the last three years, I was chair of the Celebrations Committee. I was also a member of the Education Committee and the Every Member Canvass Committees. During the ministry of Dean Higgins, the men of the church enjoyed the Dean's Dinners, which were held in Morrison Hall. Ted, Joe Fox and Peck Brandon prepared the dinners. I called the list for every Dean's Dinner. For many years, breakfasts in Morrison Hall during Advent and Lent were well attended. The menu and helpers were as follows: Simplot 101 hashbrowns, Joe Fox; scrambled eggs, Bob Ross; bacon and sausage, Al Dalrymple; cheese grits, Diane Turner; biscuits, Ted Treadway; coffee, Goldie Mashburn; server, Wassell Turner; and collections, Lou Ellen Treadway. I also chaired the Couples' Dinners, which were held in homes. We had speakers, and Dr. James Argue, of Pulaski Heights United Methodist Church, was a favorite with this group. I especially appreciated Nell and Jerry Stephens, who hosted many of these successful dinners over the years.

In the later years of my service at Trinity, I have worked with leaders, Joan Baldrige-Ballard, Coralie Maxwell and Leigh Cole, and members of the All Saints Guild. We assist with funerals at Trinity. I also help Michael McNeely with open house hospitality. This group has provided receptions for Ordinations, music recitals, Insights lectures, the Diocesan Convention, the clergy-spouse brunch at the Diocesan Convention, and the Bishop's reception for the Diocesan Convention. We also coordinated lunch in Morrison Hall for the Presiding Bishop, the Most Reverend Michael Curry.

In the community, my past service work has included: Board, UAMS Child Study Center; Board, UAMS Psychiatric Institute; Board, UAMS Winthrop P. Rockefeller Cancer Institute Auxiliary; Board, WPRCI Cooks Tour; Board and Founding Member, Family Home; Junior League of Little Rock; and JLLR Sustainer of the Year. I now serve as a volunteer with UAMS Cancer Institute Multiple Myeloma patients. I am a Master Gardener, and my project is the Scholar's Garden at the Clinton Library.

In conclusion, I have served in my early, middle and later years because I wanted to give back to Trinity Cathedral and to the larger community. Also, the continued involvement of the Treadway Family for 133 years at Trinity has been very important to Ted, our family and me. Michael McNeely told me that Theo Treadway sang in Mrs. Lyman's boy choir in 1886. 130 years later, as part of the Treadway family, I am thankful that I can continue to love and serve Trinity Cathedral. As I look to Easter at Trinity and in our community, I think of resurrection, hope, renewal, new life and new directions.

Love, Lou Ellen Treadway
