Jesus Rose... So What?

An "Easter and After" April Program Message from the Dean

This year the month of April begins on Easter Sunday. Some people will have fun with the fact that April 1 is also April Fools' Day. That is comparing silly to sublime, of course, but there is no need to be a sourpuss, because there is plenty of room in the sublimity of Easter for a little foolish fun. In Gilead, old Ames said he had come to realize that grace has "a grand laughter in it." At Easter, we learn that laughter can't be quenched. Join us for church that morning, at 7:30, 9:00 or 11:15, and – loud and clear – we'll hear it. Good Friday, God had played the devil for a fool.

Now what?

Fifty Years After the Assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: A Service of Commemoration and Rededication

On Wednesday April 4, the world will recognize the fiftieth anniversary of a day that lives in infamy: the assassination of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. We will too, in communion with our friends and partners at Bethel AME. The hour long service of music and prayer will be held at 6:00 at Bethel, 815 W. 16th Street, followed by a reception. Let's have a powerful turnout that night from Trinity. This is how we play the devil for a fool.

Then what?

Beginning Wednesday, April 11, we will resume an adjusted Wednesday evening schedule for our worship service and classes. The new schedule is as follows:

5:15 p.m. Eucharist (Chancel)

6:15 p.m. Formation Hour (Morrison Hall/Conference Room)

*Child care will be available from 5:30-8:30 in the nursery, choir practice is from 7:15-8:15.

Please notice that we will not be serving a meal during this time. We encourage you to brown bag if attending one of the classes. Water, tea, and lemonade will be available in Morrison as well.

We will offer two classes on Wednesdays in April (continuing into May). The Confirmation Class will continue with Dr. Snapp in the Conference Room and in Morrison, Lisa and I will lead a discussion titled "Jesus Rose, So What?" We will explore the Resurrection of Christ—consider its meanings, examine the basis for its credibility, ponder its significance and reflect on its personal, social, and cosmic implications. Come and bring a friend or friends to join the conversation!

The class is also open to those already baptized and confirmed who wish to join others in strengthening their knowledge of the Christian faith and of our Anglican tradition, with the possibility of reaffirming their faith before the Bishop. We will celebrate Confirmation, Reception, and Reaffirmation at the Bishop Benfield's visitation on the Day of Pentecost, which falls this year on May 20.

WELCOME TO TRINITY!

We are excited to introduce the newest member of our team, the Rev. Dr. Stuart Hoke! Stuart has recently moved to Little Rock and is eager to be a part of the Trinity community as a member and serve as an Associate Priest.

Born in Memphis, and raised in Blytheville, Stuart is a priest of the Diocese of New York who most recently served as Executive Assistant to the Rector of Trinity Wall Street and Missioner to St. Paul's Chapel at Ground Zero. He then spent several years in Chapel Hill, North Carolina, and returned to Arkansas in January.

In his extensive work for the past 30 years in the ministry of recovery, Stuart has been a frequent conference and retreat conductor throughout the Episcopal Church; and currently serves as an Adjunct Professor at New York's General Seminary where he has pioneered two courses on the Church's role in the treatment of alcoholism and addictive illness. Recently the Episcopal Church presented him the "Sam Shoemaker Award" for service in the field of addiction and recovery.

Stuart now resides at the River Market Tower in Little Rock, back at home with many friends and family members scattered throughout the state. He is the father of two sons--Ramsay who lives in Raleigh NC, and Ben who resides in Salt Lake City. Ben and his wife Katherine are expecting their first child in May, and Stuart is eagerly awaiting grandfatherhood.

We look forward to Dr. Hoke joining us in worship and warmly welcome him to this community!

Walpurgisnacht! with Jason Pennington, Organist

the third recital in the Cathedral Organ Rededication series

The concert includes works of Mozart, Hindemith, Eben, and Reger, selected to highlight the varied sound palette of the instrument from majestic roar to tiny whisper. The music list for the evening culminates with Petr Eben's diabolical tone poem Walpurgisnacht from his incidental music composed for a 1976 production of Faust at the Burgtheater in Vienna, which presents an image of the fiery, swirling scene atop the Brocken as Faust witnesses it with Mephistopheles, his infernal guide and mentor. All demons are stilled by the final work on the program, Max Reger's meditative Benedictus. A reception will follow in Morrison Hall of Trinity Cathedral.

Through a new effort in the Diocese of Arkansas we are piloting a program of "watershed discipleship" in the Maumelle-Arkansas River watershed (which encompasses most of the churches in Little Rock). This effort is aimed at helping us to become reconciled to our ecological home place and its people. Included in program will be regular "watershed bible studies," a project to develop a sustainable "food-forest," and opportunities to be trained in an ecological design process called "permaculture." To learn about this program and join in the work of putting our faith in the context of our local ecological landscapes, join us for a brown bag discussion at Christ Episcopal Church at noon on April 12. For more information, contact Ragan Sutterfield at rsutterfield@christchurchlr.org.

The Townsend and Brooks Wolfe Hearing Charitable Trust was established with the Arkansas Community Foundation by Brooks Wolfe to honor the memory and philanthropic spirit of her late husband Townsend. The Community Foundation will partner with Trinity in the distribution of these funds to needy and deserving recipients. The trust has already supplied hearing aids for adults with limited fixed income; it has installed sound-field systems in the kindergarten classrooms of Little Rock Preparatory Academy and fitted nursing home residents with assistive listening devices. If you know of someone who could benefit from such services, contact Brooks Wolfe at 501-410-4455 to inquire further. If you would like to contribute to the fund, contact the Arkansas Community Foundation and ask how to contribute to the Townsend and Brooks Wolfe Hearing Charitable Trust.

MATTHEW 25 COMMITTEE

MUSIC NEWS

While writing this article, we are preparing for an intense Holy Week which will include some of the most beautiful, meditative, meaningful music imaginable. Here at Trinity we are very fortunate to have so much talent and enthusiasm in our choir. They work extremely hard. Can you imagine that in the last 2 weeks of March (and the first day of April), they will be singing at least 18 anthems? One of the famous and complex Easter anthems "Sing Ye to the Lord" by Bairstow will be accompanied by organ and brass quintet with percussion. The children's choir "The Seraphim Singers" will be joining us on this one.

The Cathedral Choir frequently teases me because I think each anthem we present is the most beautiful one. But truly the offertory anthem they will sing this Easter has always been one of my favorites. It's a movement from Brahms' "Ein Deutsches Requiem" when the choir will sing "death is swallowed in victory". Can you think of any way to better celebrate our Lord's resurrection?

Another highlight of our April musical life will be the 3rd concert in our series to celebrate our organ. Our wonderful associate organist, Jason Pennington-Saugey, will play this recital on Friday night, April 27th at 7:00 followed by a gala reception hosted by Michael McNeely. The concert is free and open to the public. I hope you will bring your friends and family as we listen to and enjoy the beautiful music presented to us by a valued and gifted organist.

Looking ahead, mark your calendars for May 6 when, at the 9:00 Youth Service, we acknowledge the hard work that our children's choirs have done this year. Their parents and grandparents (and even great grandparents) have gone the extra mile to bring these children to rehearsals and worship. My deepest thanks go to them and to the many who help with the children's choirs. Music at Trinity will flourish as these children grow into choir members who know how to be responsible, musical parishioners. They are truly a blessing to all of us.

Victoria
