THE MESSAGE

The Newsletter of Trinity Episcopal Cathedral
A House of Prayer for All People • October 2018

October means Stewardship!

A word about stewardship from the Dean:

A steward is someone who manages another's property or financial affairs, and in faith we hold that what we have does not belong ultimately to us, but God. This is not one of the more obvious truths or easiest teachings in Christian faith! We draw the concept from Jesus' parable of the master who went on a long journey, leaving his servants in charge of his affairs. Parables are not meant to be taken literally, but rather as stories designed to illustrate truths about ourselves and God. The kingdom of heaven is "as though I am a steward," of a master who has gone away, leaving me in charge. When I can imagine myself that way, I am dipping a toe into the waters of the kingdom of God. I have been imagining myself that way for a long time. It takes a lot of practice, but over time it begins to sink in. As it does, it colors our thinking not only about giving charitably to the church and other worthwhile endeavors, but about our lives in all their aspects, including the way we spend our time and use our talents. While not one of the easiest teachings in our faith, it is easily one of the most spiritually enriching!

COMMUNITY NEWS & ANNOUNCEMENTS

STAFF TRANSITION

Sherry Stafford, long time Finance Administrator both for the Diocese and then, more recently, the Cathedral, will be leaving the Cathedral, effective October 18. Thank you, Sherry, for your long years of excellent service, professionalism, and warm-hearted good cheer!

UPDATE ON THE TOWNSEND & BROOKS WOLFE HEARING CHARITABLE FUND

To continue the philanthropic work of her late husband, Townsend, Brooks Wolfe established this foundation through the Arkansas Community Foundation to help the deaf and hard of hearing.

Since its inception fifteen months ago, she has fit 34 adults with hearing aids pro bono with fixed incomes ranging from $860 to $1600/month. In addition, fifteen residents of nursing homes have been fit with assistive listening devices. Classroom acoustical modifications and sound-field systems have been installed in half of the classrooms at LRPA, thereby, benefitting 140 students. Standardized testing was administered at the beginning of the school year and will be re-administered in April 2019 to determine if these classroom interventions have significantly raised the students' language scores.

Our collaborative team for serving the nursing home population is Dr. Hope Keiser and Dr. Pat Highley (retired audiologists). Our team for serving LRPA is Lenora Steinkamp (retired Kindergarten teacher), Jean Harper (volunteer reading specialist), Dr. Hope Keiser, and Beth Eaton (retired Speech language-pathologist and early language interventionist). Hearing aid fittings are a team of one!

If you know of someone in need, please call 501-603-9449 or e-mail me at Brooksg@asd.k12.ar.us. If anyone is interested in donating to the cause, please contact the Arkansas Community Foundation.

THEOLOGICAL PERMACULTURE COURSE IN LITTLE ROCK

October 18-27

On Oct. 18-27, the Diocesan Environmental Task Force will host a 10-day permaculture certification course in Little Rock. Permaculture is an ecological design process, and this particular course will include theological components as well. The primary teacher will be Chris Grataski of the Roots School in Vermont. The cost will be $500, not including food and lodging. There are three tuition-free spots available to members of Little Rock-area Episcopal churches, made possible by a grant from the national Episcopal Church. If you are interested in attending and would like to receive a registration link or apply for a tuition-free spot, please email the Rev. Ragan Sutterfield.

BECOME AN AR KIDS READ VOLUNTEER AT LRPA

Do you have one hour a week to help a student across the street improve their reading skills? If so, you can go online at AR Kids Read and sign up as a volunteer, or contact Jean Harper (harper4188@comcast.net) 501-607-6143. Those who have already expressed a willingness to tutor our 2nd, 3rd and 4th graders include: Sandy Hayes, Lewis Machen, Lisa McNeir, Beth Matthews, Jane McMullin, Brooks Wolfe, Hope Keiser, Ellen Fennell, Olivia Goza, Christy Robinson, George Harper, and Jean Harper. Additionally, Trinity parishioners already in the ARKids program include Charliss Russ and Craig O'Neil. Please prayerfully consider this very important outreach by reading the following testimonials:

"Of what magical force do I speak? The simple but profound act of volunteering one's time and talent to mentor or tutor a child who could use the help. I've seen this magic firsthand and I can tell you that its impact can be life-changing for both the student and the mentor."

- Pat Riley Jr.

"This year I read in September for "Service Day" at an area school, and it was so much fun to be with a room of first graders who were full of wonder and excitement about learning new things. And when I left the school, I was full of vibrancy and joy and gratitude for having this opportunity to serve! And I remembered that there are so many children who need some extra attention from an individual who can go over their books and words and reinforce their skills, so I signed up with our Volunteers in Public Schools and am back at the same elementary school that my children attended."

OPPORTUNITIES FOR HOLY BAPTISM

The Episcopal Church designates certain dates in the Church calendar as especially appropriate for the celebration of Holy Baptism. These include All Saints' Sunday, which falls this year on November 4 and the Feast of the Baptism of Christ, which next falls on Sunday, January 13, 2019. If you are interested in either infant or youth/adult baptism on one of those dates, please contact Dawn Howe (dhowe@trinitylittlerock.org) and Dr. Russ Snapp (rsnapp@trinitylittlerock.org). Dr. Snapp will be leading three preparatory sessions on Sundays before each baptismal date. (Oct. 7, 14, and 21 and Dec. 2, 9, and 16).

TRINITY WOMEN'S GATHERING

October 23

We will gather at the home of Jane McMullin (4 Lombardy Lane) on Tuesday, October 23 at 5:00 p.m. It is easiest to get to Lombardy from Kavanaugh (two blocks west of University) to avoid turning off of Cantrell. Please bring a bottle of wine or appetizer to share.... or just bring yourself. This is a wonderful opportunity to visit with our parish sisters - new and old. Contact Sissi Brandon for more information at 501-831-1091.

KNEELER DEDICATION

October 28

Join us at the 11:15 a.m. service to dedicate 51 beautiful kneelers in honor and in memory of family, friends and loved ones. We now have 420 completed kneelers. The Needlepoint Guild has been stitching kneelers since 2005 and we are closing in on finishing the project. Only 20 kneelers remain to be dedicated in 2019. A lot of beautiful work by wonderful stitchers has been accomplished in 13 years of stitching.

TRINITY HERITAGE SUNDAY FEATURING GUEST ORGANIST: CHARLES RIGSBY

October 28

We are delighted to announce that former Cathedral Organist and Choirmaster Mr. Charles Rigbsby will play for morning services on Sunday, October 28, as part of our Trinity Heritage Sunday Celebration. Born in Nashville, Arkansas and trained at Henderson State and the College of Church Musicians at the National Cathedral, Mr. Rigbsby served with distinction at Trinity Parish and the Cathedral School from 1973 to 1992. A program he founded from Trinity in 1976, the Arkansas Interfaith Conference Choir Camp at Subiaco, has continued to thrive under his leadership (now through generations.) Last year he retired after nearly twenty years of service as Organist and Choirmaster of St. Paul's, Fayetteville. Both at Trinity and St. Paul's, Charlie brought the highest levels of musical quality and spiritual enrichment to parish life, with lifelong impacts. Welcome back to Trinity Charlie!

75+ YEAR MEMBERS' RECEPTION

Are you or do you know someone who has been a member of Trinity for 75 years? We want to celebrate their dedication to Trinity on Heritage Sunday, October 28. These are the members who have kept Trinity strong through all our changes, the sadness and joys. We would never be where we are without these outstanding members! Please send your names to Mary Hodges at 501-372-0294 or mhodes@trinitylittlerock.org.

CHILDREN & FAMILY NEWS

Last month your child(ren) entered a specially prepared environment called the ATRIUM. The Atrium is not a classroom, but can be likened to a retreat house for children.

Why is it called “Atrium” anyway? The word “atrium” actually means “portico, or porch entrance to a large house.” The Atrium was a term given to this space by Maria Montessori. It was chosen because in the ancient church, the atrium was a gathering space between the Church Proper and the street. It was the place where the catechumens, those preparing for initiation to the Church, would receive instruction. The Atrium has a similar purpose for our children, as it is a place to help them enter into full, conscious and active participation in the liturgical and communal life of the Church.

What is a “prepared environment”? The prepared environment is a Montessori concept that the environment can be designed to facilitate independent learning by the child. In a prepared environment, children work with materials of their own choice and at their own pace. They experience a combination of freedom and self-discipline in a place especially prepared to meet their developmental and spiritual needs.

The 1884 Legacy Society was formed for the purpose of planned giving education, recognition of those who have acknowledged an intent to include Trinity Episcopal Cathedral in their giving plans, to be good stewards of the gifts and to fulfill the wishes of the benefactors. As the “Shepherd” for this society, it has been my honor to create an awareness of the need to “Plant Trees” for the sustainability of our beloved Cathedral.

The 1884 Legacy Society has grown to a level and complexity that a committee is now needed to address all of these issues. Therefore, a committee has been formed for the continuity of the Society. Members of this committee have been selected based on their commitment to Trinity as well as the long term vision they have indicated as a member of the Society. Each brings different viewpoints and gifts which they are willing to share.
