

Choral Evensong with Holy Eucharist
Sunday, November 26, 2023 at 4:00 p.m.
Twenty-sixth Sunday after Pentecost

Welcome to Trinity Episcopal Cathedral. We're delighted you have joined us for this beautiful, restorative service. Choral Evensong is a contemplative service of music, readings, and prayers that takes place in the late afternoon or early evening. It allows listeners time to meditate and transition from the busyness of the day to the peace and quiet of the evening. A major aspect of the Evensong service's structure is the balance between old and new, young and old, birth and death, and female and male. Evensong's distinguishing feature is that it consists primarily of music.

Choral Preces and Responses are one of the oldest forms of Christian prayer, where short, composed petitions are sung alternately by the officiant and the choir.

The Psalms are the ancient hymnal of God's people. The choir sings the psalms appointed for that day. At evensongs, we conclude each psalm with the "Gloria Patri,"

"Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost, as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen."

Magnificat: Collegium Regale sung by the choir Herbert Howells
My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior. For he hath regarded the lowliness of his handmaiden. For behold from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath magnified me, and holy is his Name. And his mercy is on them that fear him throughout all generations. He hath showed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the humble and meek. He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent empty away. He remembering his mercy hath holpen his servant Israel, as he promised to our forefathers, Abraham and his seed for ever. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Second Lesson

Luke 19:11-27

Nunc Dimittis: Collegium Regale sung by the choir Herbert Howells
soloist: Lawson Stieglmeyer
Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word; For mine eyes have seen thy salvation, which thou hast prepared before the face of all people, To be a light to lighten the Gentiles, and to be the glory of thy people Israel. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

The Apostles' Creed intoned by the Officiant, sung by all, standing

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ,
his only son, our Lord

Who was conceived by the Holy Ghost,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried:
He descended into hell.

The third day he rose again from the dead;
He ascended into heaven,
and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty;
From thence he shall come to judge the quick
and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen.

The people stand or kneel.

The Magnificat links the Old and New Testaments. The Magnificat is Mary's song of thanksgiving after receiving news that she will bear the son of God, fulfilling the promises of the Old Testament. (Luke 1:46-55)

The Nunc dimittis is the song of Simeon, an aged man promised by the Holy Spirit that he would not die until he had seen the Messiah. After taking the infant Jesus into his arms, he wrote these words of thanksgiving. (Luke 2:29-32)

The Apostles' Creed, the oldest profession of faith in the Christian Church and lists the primary doctrines of Christianity.

The following are sung by the Officiant and the choir.

Salutation

Philip Moore

Lord's Prayer

Philip Moore

Our Father, which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, But deliver us from evil. Amen.

The Lesser Litany and the Collects are set prayers that bid God to strengthen our faith and protect us from all perils as evening falls.

Suffrages and Collects

Philip Moore

Choir And make thy chosen people joyful.

Officiant O Lord, save thy people.

Then follow three Collects: the first of the day, the second for Peace, and the third for Aid against all Perils.

The Second Collect, for Peace
O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

The Third Collect, for Aid against all Perils
LIGHTEN our darkness, we beseech thee, O Lord; and by thy great mercy defend us from all perils and dangers of this night; for the love of thy only Son, our Saviour, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Anthem

Jubilate Deo

Herbert Howells

- 1 O be joyful in the Lord, all ye lands:*
- 2 serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.*
- 3 Be ye sure that the Lord he is God; it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.*
- 4 O go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise; be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.*
- 5 For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth from generation to generation.*

The Choral Anthem follows, meditating on Biblical texts and providing a sermon in music.

*Glory be to the Father, and to the Son:
and to the Holy Ghost;
as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be:
world without end. Amen.*

Notes on the Notes:

Collegium Regale, often colloquially shortened to "Coll Reg," is Latin for "King's College" and indicates that a piece was written for the choir of King's College, Cambridge. Not surprisingly, numerous pieces by different composers have this designation, but Howells' "Coll Reg" works are the best known and most extensive, including canticles for Matins (Te Deum and Jubilate), a communion service (Kyrie, Gloria, etc.), and an evening service (Magnificat and Nunc dimittis). This evening, the choir will perform the evening service as well as the Jubilate.
